COUNTY NEWS NOTES.

To insure insertion ALL correspondence must be in this office by Monday night of each week, and
that nearby on Monday morning

Our correspondents are derelict in duty
and we want to say that henceforth they
will not receive papers except for the week they have news letters. We are dependent upon them for the news and
when they fail to send in their favors
they put us to great inconvenience.

BY SAM WILSON.

Some years ago the gayest crowd
Would gather at the fair,
Held yearly at our little town
To view the races there.
These pleasant autumn days are gone;
No more we promenade
With our true sweetheart by our side,
While vows of love were made.
I've marked the little boys and girls
That thronged the walk about
When'er a horse would fly around,
O, how they'd laugh and shout.
But things have changed, no more you
hear
The music of their glee,
For some are married and doing well,
And some are left like me.

SUNNY SIDE.

Carl Mize and Miss Edie Killgore were
out this way Saturday pleasure driving.
Misses Nevada and Ada Nickell, of
your town, gave this place a pleasant
call Sunday. "Charlie" came with them.
Miss Cornie Bice and brother John,
of the Swango Springs, went to Lacy
creek Sunday.
Edward Oney sold Ben Murphy a calf
last week for $20 cash in hand. That calf was a dandy.
Quite a number of the school, of Morgan county, passed through here last week en route home.
Clifton Cope, of Frozen, Breathitt
county, passed through here Wednesday
en route to Hazel Green.
Taylor Hurst and father, and Robert
Mason, of Breathitt, took in the latter part of the commencement last week.
Our commencement has always been
a source of much pleasure to us, but the
last one just took the cake and clapped
the climax.
George Amyx, the lucky plucky hero,
who won the medal in the contest last
week, is not a resident of Morgan county
as stated in THE HERALD, but of dear
old Wolfe.
Misses Mattie and Bettie Cope, Mattie
and Rebecca Hampton, of Breathitt
county, who attended the commencement at Hazel Green, passed through
here Thursday en route to their respective homes.
Misses Minnie, Ella and Maud Millard,
of Magoffin county, who have been attending the Hazel Green academy, passed
through here Thursday on their way
home, their father and brother having
come after them.
Edward Oney killed a large copper-
head snake in our corn crib Monday; it had a mouse in its throat. We would advise every body to stay away from
that crib if they don't want to get snake
bit.

Mattie and Bettie, visited our town last
week.

looking for bargains in stave timber. He is a hustler for business.

and wife were visitors to our town yester-
day and today.

town, is at the Dewey Hotel visiting her

be constructed at once, opposite Amos Graham's store on Main street.

The track was finished past the mouth
of Frozen yesterday, and is making one
mile each day; 11 miles from our city.

One more added to our population in the city. To the wife of Clay Rose, a fine girl yesterday. Mrs. Lindon, of
Gillmore officiated.

Shanghai officiated as umpire in a ball
game between the Odd Fellows at Walnut Grove on Saturday evening, and
during the game was hit between the
eyes by a high ball of a dark variety.

We understand that we are soon to
have a circus in our city, engineered by one C. B. Allen, which will consist of a real live white elephant, recently purchased of R. J. McLin, of Hazel Green,
which he has hatched and matured on Frozen creek on or about Judge Blanton's
place. We understand the elephant is still in the woods, but he has four years
in which to present same to our dear
people.

Last Thursday evening opposite the
A. K. Day store at Big Tunnel R. L.
Fulks and G. T. Wireman engaged in a shooting match, three or four shots fired
and no one injured, except the two were
arrested by Constable Ausben, of Morgan county. Both the defendants passed
through here yesterday for Breathitt
county, and Fulks claims to have bought
his freedom from Ausben for $12.50 R.
R. check.

Misses Nannie and Mahala Rose visited the big tunnel Friday and passed through the hole in the rock. The black boys would beat-time on the steel
and sing touching songs to entertain the guests. The heading is driven through and arched over. Visitors are always welcomed, and Cain Nickell will always
be found at his post and is very polite,
and shows the visitors through the
ruined scene.

Susie Sunbeam, in referring to persons

sick dandy. On being asked what doctor

For Assessor—S. N. HOBBS.
For Coroner—FRANK SAMPLES.
Election Tuesday, Nov. 5, 1901.

WITH two candidates claiming the democratic nomination for state senator in this district, THE HERALD finds itself in a quandary. Mr. Stamper, having the certificate of nomination signed by the chairman and secretary of his end of the convention, seems to have the best of it just now, however, and we put him up as the nominee. When Judge Hampton presents like credentials we shall also hoist his name to the same place. As a democratic organ with the interest of the party at heart we can not do otherwise. But the success of the party being paramount to the claims of either individual, we suggest that they take counsel of their friends and effect some compromise. This persistent obstinacy can only result in the defeat of the party, and if they be the democrats they claim to be they must bury personal ambition or perish in perdition with the defeat of the party. County pride inclines us to Mr. Stamper, but his escutcheon must be clear of all controversy before he can expect our support. Then we will do all we can for him. All democrats look alike to us and we shall treat all alike. Our brother would have to abide this. Aye, even our better 1, and no appeal will avail. In the meantime, if the two gentlemen wish to air their views and present their respective claims through our columns they may do so at 8¢ per line, cash to accompany copy. Following are Mr. Stamper's credentials:

"COMMONWEALTH OF KENTUCKY, }
34th SENATORIAL DISTRICT, }
To the Clerks of the counties of Breathitt, Magoffin, Wolfe, Morgan and Owsley:
"This is to certify that a convention was held by the democrats of the 34th senatorial district of Kentucky in the town of Hazel Green, Ky., on the 5th day of June, 1901, and continued in session from day to day until the 6th day of June, 1901, at which convention A. H. Stamper, a resident of Campton, Wolfe county, Ky., was nominated a candidate for senator of said district, and in said state, to be voted for at the November election, 1901. That the title and principles represented by said convention are known and designated as the democratic party of the state of Kentucky, and the device selected to be placed at the head of the list of candidates of the democratic party shall be a game cock in the act of crowing.
"Witness our hands as chairman and secretary of said convention this June 6th, 1901.

Secretary, Hazel Green, Ky."

THE Paragon Monthly, for June, a New York magazine, a copy of which is on our table, contains the following, and most fully illustrates the old saw, "If you would learn the news you must go from home:"

"To the Dream Editor:

"When I was a young girl I dreamed one night that I had an old woman to tell my fortune. She said that I had never yet seen the man I would marry, that I would know nothing about him but would love and trust him. She said he would be a terrible drunkard and would be very cruel to me, and that he would come home one night and kill my twin babies, and finally die on a fellow's bed. Not being superstitious or believing in dreams I thought no more of it. Two or three years after I married a stranger, and our firstborn were twins. My husband was a drunkard, as in my dream. One night he stayed out later than usual—knowing he would come home drunk, I moved the cradle containing the twins in an adjoining room, fearing he would wake them. (Oh! my blood freezes in my veins when I think of that awful night). I was in the kitchen fixing supper when I heard him come in. I stepped to the door and saw him fall heavily upon the bed. When supper was ready I went to call him, but he was gone. I then went to see about my babies—I turned the cover off them and (oh, God!) they were gone, and in their places were two sticks of wood. At that moment the dream of years ago rushed to my mind. I remembered that the fortune teller said he would throw them over a cliff. I rushed to the one that was near. I heard a faint wail. When they were rescued one was dead and the other died in a short time.

"NETTIE WHEELER.

"Hazel Green, Ky."

With the foregoing letter it is most interesting to read the following statement:

"To the Dream Editor:

"In regard to the dream enclosed, I am personally acquainted with the lady who is supposed to have had this strange dream. Her husband and twin babies died under the peculiar circumstances mentioned. I cannot vouch for the dream only as her statement, but she is a truthful woman.

(Signed) "JUDGE OF POLICE COURT."
"Hazel Green, Ky."

The same magazine says: "The prizes of $1 each for dreams in this issue have been awarded to:

"J. W. F., Paxito, Mo.
Mrs. Nettie Wheeler, Hazel Green, Ky.
Ernest T. Myers, German Valley, Ill."

THE HERALD congratulates Miss Nettie upon being one of the lucky contestants, and hopes she may be heard from again. As a writer of fiction she is a decided success, and when she has any more dreams to realize upon we hope she will honor our columns with an account of her thrilling experience. Our readers would certainly enjoy 'em and we would "shore" appreciate the courtesy.

A Card From Judge James J. Hampton.

JACKSON, KY., June 10th, 1901.
Editor HAZEL GREEN HERALD:

I understand that Mr. Howard Stamper is claiming to be the democratic nominee of the Hazel Green convention for state senator in this district. I wish to call the attention of the people of this district to the fact that Mr. Stamper is not the nominee of said convention. The district is composed of the counties of Breathitt, Magoffin, Morgan, Owsley and Wolfe. In said convention I had instructed for me the delegates of Breath-itt, Magoffin and Owsley—14 votes, while Stamper had only Wolfe, with five votes, and Lykins had Morgan, with nine votes. I also had friends on the delegation in Morgan and Wolfe, so that when either Stamper or Lykins was dropped, I was bound to be nominated. Mr. Stamper saw this, and through Mr. Carter tried to forcibly take Magoffin county's vote, and that resulted in two conventions being organized at the same time and place. The contesting delegates from Morgan were seated with Breathitt, Magoffin and Owsley's regular delegates, and on the call of counties I was nominated, receiving 23 of the 28 votes in the district.

Stamper tried to nominate himself with the five votes of Wolfe, which was all he had. I understand that he or his friends have circulated the report that I did not accept the nomination or that I would quit—neither of which is true. I was fairly nominated and will make the race to the end, and I will, I believe, be elected in November.

I confidently expect the support of all loyal democrats in the district.

Respectfully,
JAMES J. HAMPTON.

COUNTY NEWS NOTES.

To insure insertion ALL correspondence must be in this office by Monday night of each week, and
that nearby on Monday morning

Our correspondents are derelict in duty
and we want to say that henceforth they
will not receive papers except for the
week they have news letters. We are
dependent upon them for the news and
when they fail to send in their favors
they put us to great inconvenience.

SOME ARE LEFT.

BY SAM WILSON.

Some years ago the gayest crowd
Would gather at the fair,
Held yearly at our little town
To view the races there.
These pleasant autumn days are gone;
No more we promenade
With our true sweetheart by our side,
While vows of love were made.
I've marked the little boys and girls
That thronged the walk about
When'er a horse would fly around,
O, how they'd laugh and shout.
But things have changed, no more you
hear
The music of their glee,
For some are married and doing well,
And some are left like me.

SUNNY SIDE.

Carl Mize and Miss Edie Killgore were
out this way Saturday pleasure driving.
Misses Nevada and Ada Nickell, of
your town, gave this place a pleasant
call Sunday. "Charlie" came with them.
Miss Cornie Bice and brother John,
of the Swango Springs, went to Lacy
creek Sunday.
Edward Oney sold Ben Murphy a calf
last week for $20 cash in hand. That
calf was a dandy.
Quite a number of the school, of Morgan county, passed through here last
week en route home.
Clifton Cope, of Frozen, Breathitt
county, passed through here Wednesday
en route to Hazel Green.
Taylor Hurst and father, and Robert
Mason, of Breathitt, took in the latter
part of the commencement last week.
Our commencement has always been
a source of much pleasure to us, but the
last one just took the cake and clapped
the climax.
George Amyx, the lucky plucky hero,
who won the medal in the contest last
week, is not a resident of Morgan county
as stated in THE HERALD, but of dear
old Wolfe.
Misses Mattie and Bettie Cope, Mattie
and Rebecca Hampton, of Breathitt
county, who attended the commencement at Hazel Green, passed through
here Thursday en route to their respective homes.
Misses Minnie, Ella and Maud Millard,
of Magoffin county, who have been attending the Hazel Green academy, passed
through here Thursday on their way
home, their father and brother having
come after them.
Edward Oney killed a large copper-
head snake in our corn crib Monday; it
had a mouse in its throat. We would advise every body to stay away from
that crib if they don't want to get snake
bit.

Mattie and Bettie, visited our town last
week.

looking for bargains in stave timber. He
is a hustler for business.

and wife were visitors to our town yester-
day and today.

Graham's store on Main street.

The track was finished past the mouth
of Frozen yesterday, and is making one
mile each day; 11 miles from our city.

One more added to our population in
the city. To the wife of Clay Rose, a fine girl yesterday. Mrs. Lindon, of
Gillmore officiated.

Shanghai officiated as umpire in a ball
game between the Odd Fellows at Walnut Grove on Saturday evening, and
during the game was hit between the
eyes by a high ball of a dark variety.

We understand that we are soon to
have a circus in our city, engineered by
one C. B. Allen, which will consist of a real live white elephant, recently purchased of R. J. McLin, of Hazel Green,
which he has hatched and matured on
Frozen creek on or about Judge Blanton's
place. We understand the elephant is
people.

Last Thursday evening opposite the
A. K. Day store at Big Tunnel R. L.
Fulks and G. T. Wireman engaged in a
shooting match, three or four shots fired
and no one injured, except the two were
arrested by Constable Ausben, of Morgan county. Both the defendants passed
through here yesterday for Breathitt
county, and Fulks claims to have bought
his freedom from Ausben for $12.50 R.
check.

Misses Nannie and Mahala Rose visited the big tunnel Friday and passed
through the hole in the rock. The
black boys would beat-time on the steel
and sing touching songs to entertain the
guests. The heading is driven through
and arched over. Visitors are always
welcomed, and Cain Nickell will always
be found at his post and is very polite,
and shows the visitors through the
ruined scene.

Susie Sunbeam, in referring to persons

sick dandy. On being asked what doctor

THE COUNTY TICKET.

For Attorney—C. C. FULKS.
For Clerk—W. S. TUTT.
For Sheriff—T. F. STAMPER.
For Supt. Schools—J. W. TAULBEE.
For Jailor—J. B. LITTLE.
For Assessor—S. N. HOBBS.
For Coroner—FRANK SAMPLES.
Election Tuesday, Nov. 5, 1901.

With two candidates claiming the democratic nomination for state senator in this district, THE HERALD finds itself in a quandary. Mr. Stamper, having the certificate of nomination signed by the chairman and secretary of his end of the convention, seems to have the best of it just now, however, and we put him up as the nominee. When Judge Hampton presents like credentials we shall also hoist his name to the same place. As a democratic organ with the interest of the party at heart we can not do otherwise. But the success of the party being paramount to the claims of either individual, we suggest that they take counsel of their friends and effect some compromise. This persistent obstinacy can only result in the defeat of the party, and if they be the democrats they claim to be they must bury personal ambition or perish in perdition with the defeat of the party. County pride inclines us to Mr. Stamper, but his escutcheon must be clear of all controversy before he can expect our support. Then we will do all we can for him. All democrats look alike to us and we shall treat all alike. Our brother would have to abide this. Aye, even our better, and no appeal will avail. In the meantime, if the two gentlemen wish to air their views and present their respective claims through our columns they may do so at $4 per line, cash to accompany copy. Following are Mr. Stamper's credentials:

To the Clerks of the counties of Breathitt, Magoffin, Wolfe, Morgan and Owsley:
"This is to certify that a convention was held by the democrats of the 34th senatorial district of Kentucky in the town of Hazel Green, Ky., on the 5th day of June, 1901, and continued in session from day to day until the 6th day of June, 1901, at which convention A. H. Stamper, a resident of Campton, Wolfe county, Ky., was nominated a candidate for senator of said district, and in said state, to be voted for at the November election, 1901. That the title and principles represented by said convention are known and designated as the democratic party of the state of Kentucky, and the device selected to be placed at the head of the list of candidates of the democratic party shall be a game cock in the act of crowing.
"Witness our hands as chairman and secretary of said convention this June 6th, 1901.

W. H. KASH,
Secretary, Hazel Green, Ky."

"By J. M. Swango, D. C."

THE Paragon Monthly, for June, a New York magazine, a copy of which is on our table, contains the following, and most fully illustrates the old saw, "If you would learn the news you must go from home:"

"To the Dream Editor:

"When I was a young girl I dreamed one night that I had an old woman to tell my fortune. She said that I had never yet seen the man I would marry, that I would know nothing about him but would love and trust him. She said he would be a terrible drunkard and would be very cruel to me, and that he would come home one night and kill my twin babies, and finally die on a fellow's bed. Not being superstitious or believing in dreams I thought no more of it. Two or three years after I married a stranger, and our firstborn were twins. My husband was a drunkard, as in my dream. One night he stayed out later than usual—knowing he would come home drunk, I moved the cradle containing the twins in an adjoining room, fearing he would wake them. (Oh! my blood freezes in my veins when I think of that awful night). I was in the kitchen fixing supper when I heard him come in. I stepped to the door and saw him fall heavily upon the bed. When supper was ready I went to call him, but he was gone. I then went to see about my babies—I turned the cover off them and (oh, God!) they were gone, and in their places were two sticks of wood. At that moment the dream of years ago rushed to my mind. I remembered that the fortune teller said he would throw them over a cliff. I rushed to the one that was near. I heard a faint wail. When they were rescued one was dead and the other died in a short time.

"NETTIE WHEELER.

"Hazel Green, Ky."

With the foregoing letter it is most interesting to read the following statement:

"To the Dream Editor:

"In regard to the dream enclosed, I am personally acquainted with the lady who is supposed to have had this strange dream. Her husband and twin babies died under the peculiar circumstances mentioned. I cannot vouch for the dream only as her statement, but she is a truthful woman.

"Hazel Green, Ky."

The same magazine says: "The prizes of $1 each for dreams in this issue have been awarded to:

"J. W. F., Paxito, Mo.
Mrs. Nettie Wheeler, Hazel Green, Ky.
Ernest T. Myers, German Valley, Ill."

THE HERALD congratulates Miss Nettie upon being one of the lucky contestants, and hopes she may be heard from again. As a writer of fiction she is a decided success, and when she has any more dreams to realize upon we hope she will honor our columns with an account of her thrilling experience. Our readers would certainly enjoy 'em and we would "shore" appreciate the courtesy.

A Card From Judge James J. Hampton.

JACKSON, KY., June 10th, 1901.

Editor HAZEL GREEN HERALD:

I understand that Mr. Howard Stamper is claiming to be the democratic nominee of the Hazel Green convention for state senator in this district. I wish to call the attention of the people of this district to the fact that Mr. Stamper is not the nominee of said convention. The district is composed of the counties of Breathitt, Magoffin, Morgan, Owsley and Wolfe. In said convention I had instructed for me the delegates of Breath-

itt, Magoffin and Owsley—14 votes, while Stamper had only Wolfe, with five votes, and Lykins had Morgan, with nine votes. I also had friends on the delegation in Morgan and Wolfe, so that when either Stamper or Lykins was dropped, I was bound to be nominated. Mr. Stamper saw this, and through Mr. Carter tried to forcibly take Magoffin county's vote, and that resulted in two conventions being organized at the same time and place. The contesting delegates from Morgan were seated with Breathitt, Magoffin and Owsley's regular delegates, and on the call of counties I was nominated, receiving 23 of the 28 votes in the district.

Stamper tried to nominate himself with the five votes of Wolfe, which was all he had. I understand that he or his friends have circulated the report that I did not accept the nomination or that I would quit—neither of which is true. I was fairly nominated and will make the race to the end, and I will, I believe, be elected in November.

I confidently expect the support of all loyal democrats in the district.

Respectfully,
JAMES J. HAMPTON.
